Thursday, March 2, 2017
Conference Room, 4:00 p.m.

In attendance: Mindy Robison, LeAnn Evans, Amy Jex, Jennifer Peterson, Micky Rogan, Tamara Stokes, Ann Hogan, and Marie Seager

1. February meeting minutes were read and approved
2. SCC Training: none
3. Data Reports:

Behavior Data:

- 51 Office referrals
- 2 major, 49 moderate
- 46 males, 5 females
- 18 from 2nd grade, 14 from 5th grade
- 28 incidents from the playground, 14 incidents from the classroom
- Over 25,000 Cub Credit Cards have been given to students

The PBIS behavior system was explained in brief. Teachers are working on giving lots of positive reinforcement along with correctives in order to improve the school climate. Specifically, the teaches are implementing precision directions, with adequate wait time.

SCC parent members expressed interest in a parent training class to educate parents about the program and help them with discipline at home.

Academic Data:

The March reward will be a Read-A-Thon, "Camp Out With a Good Book" on March 24. Mrs. Robison will buy a treat and send home a flyer about the activity.

Testing: only those who have not made Benchmark are being retested at this time.

4. Budgetary Items: With the passage of Amendment B, the Trustlands Funds should increase next year by approximately $10,000.00. The SCC was in favor of hiring two additional aides to support the reading program with this money. The CSIP and Trustland was signed and approved by each member.
5. Other: Carnival details were reviewed.

Next meeting: Thursday, April 20, 4:00 p.m.
