Principal's 200 Club

Our Principal's 200 Club is up and running! Students that earn Cub Credit Cards for following the ROARS rules are placed in a drawing. If drawn, students come to the office, earn a prize, and have their name written on the board. When a whole row is full, all those names earn a mystery prize with Mrs. Robison.

Teacher of the Year Nominations

Show our teachers some love! Nominate your favorite for our school's Teacher of the Year award. We'll surprise our school's winning teacher the week of March 27-31.

Here's how to nominate:

- 1 Download the nomination form at www.canyonsdistrict.org
- 2 Tell why your teacher should be the Teacher of the Year.
- 3 Print and submit the form to the PTA by March 1 (if you're a school employee, submit the form to the principal). The School Selection Committee will consider nominees forwarded by the PTA (up to two) and employees.
- 4 Watch for information about the Teacher of the Year surprise announcement.

Thanks for helping us recognize our outstanding teachers!

Character Trait: Citizenship

During the month of February, we are focusing on Citizenship. Specifically, we are discussing how each student can do their share to make their school and community better.

We are focusing on

- Cooperating
- Getting involved
- Being a good neighbor
- Obeying rules
- Respecting authority

Community Closet

On Monday, February 13th from 4-8 PM, Jordan High School will host the AVID Community Clothing Closet in their Commons Area. Any community member is welcome to get what they need from the closet free of charge. Clothes and shoes will be available for men, women, and children.
