

Crescent Elementary
School Community Group
Monday, April 28, 2014
4:00 p.m., Conference Room

Attending: Debbie Shumard, Natalie Aitkens, Sandy Lloyd, LeeAnn Evans, Melissa Johnson, Amy Jex, Jacquelyn Wallenberg. Excused: Terra Gerritsen, Rochelle Stone. Guest: Ellen Stone, Achievement Coach

Sandy Lloyd read the minutes from February 10, 2014

Motioned to accept the minutes: Melissa Johnson

Seconded: LeeAnn Evans

Trustlands: Debbie Shumard

Mrs. Shumard proposed an amendment to the Trustlands document. It was suggested to adapt the plan to assign money to fund substitutes for professional development, data discovery, core curriculum strategies in PLC and BLT meetings. Previous funds for these meetings is not available for the 2014-2015 school year. Ellen Stone and Sandy Lloyd discussed the need and value of teacher collaboration and data driven studies. It was agreed by all in attending the School Community Group that any assistance from Trustlands would be a vital investment in the educational goals at Crescent Elementary.

Wellness Policy: Debbie Shumard

SCC reviewed the Nutrition Wellness Policy adopted by Canyons School District. Mrs. Shumard discussed specifically some of the changes for better nutrition and health Crescent Elementary has adopted. A handout was given to each member attending.

Reading Program: LeeAnn Evans

Mrs. Evans reviewed the reading program. The reward for April reading minutes will be given this week and will be a cookie for each student. The reward for May's reading minutes will be the Crescent DJ's playing music outside during recess.

Hoedown

Results of hoedown discussion:

- Amy Jex will have the BYU Folk Dancers (32) perform at an assembly, May 12, 2014 in the morning for the students. This will be a precursor for the Hoedown on May 21st. There will be about 32 BYU students performing.
- May 12, 2014: Hoedown 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.
BYU dancers will perform and instruct
Picture backgrounds available for those who want to take their own pictures
Everyone invited to come in Western dress
Amy Jex will be the square dance 'caller'.
BYU dancers will help with all activities.

Schedule of Events:

- 5:30 families and students gather at the school. All are invited to bring picnic dinners.
- 6:00 BYU dancers will perform and give instructions on square dancing.
- Possible food items: popcorn, cotton candy, etc.
- Possible activities: tug-a-war, relay races, etc.
- Sandy Lloyd will check on getting hay bales.

Meeting Dismissed, 5:10 p.m.

Motion to adjourn: Sandy Lloyd

Seconded: LeeAnn Evans

Next Meeting: May 7, 2014 – to further discuss activity.

